Application for a temporary document:

To cover the period in which the original passport is at the studbook office for processing the application, you can apply for a 'temporary document'. With this document, a horse can be transported within the Netherlands for up to 45 days after this document has been issued.

If you have completed the above mandate, your application will be processed as soon as possible, thus avoiding the need for a temporary document.

If you have not completed the mandate, you should indicate below if you need a temporary travel document.

I have not completed the mandate and would like to receive a temporary document.
